About Us

LPGA-USGA Girls Golf (Girls Golf) provides an opportunity for girls, ages 7 to 17, to learn to play golf, build lasting friendships and experience competition in a fun, supportive environment, preparing them for a lifetime of enjoyment with the game.

The only national initiative of its kind, Girls Golf is administered through a partnership between The Ladies Professional Golf Association (LPGA) Foundation and the United States Golf Association (USGA), both non-profit 501(c)(3) charitable organizations.

Leading the Way

Girls Golf sites are administered by site directors who are:

- LPGA or PGA professionals
- USGA members
- Girl Scouts of the USA leaders
- Executive Women Golf Association members
- Hook A Kid on Golf directors
- Parents or members of the community
- Local golf association members

Playing Partners

Girl Scouts.

Instruction

Five-level progressive learning is offered on the golf course, starting from the green and moving back to the tee.

Girls Golf provides a solid instructional foundation for girls who want to:

- play for fun with friends and family
- learn for a future career in business
- compete at the high school, college, and/or local, state and national levels

"The program encourages girls to have fun playing golf, even if they are serious competitors."

– Dianne Overstreet, USGA Regional Association Committee member, co-site director

"The golf skills that she has learned have helped her take her game to another level."

– Parent of a Girls Golf participant
